SALOON BRAWL DOES THE BUSINESS.

Joe Hubbard, a Mendota Coon, Hammered to Death.

Hubbard Attacked by McGinnis on Saturday Night—No Immediate Injuries of Consequence—Falls Very Ill and Dies Tuesday Night.

THE KILLING.

MENDOTA, Ill., July 2.—[Special.]—James McGinnis and two other men have been arrested for the murder of Joe Hubbard, a negro.

Hubbard, McGinnis and two others were in Shuler & Co.'s saloon at about 11 o'clock on Saturday night, and a discussion over a trivial matter arose between McGinnis and Hubbard. McGinnis called Hubbard a "dirty nigger" and knocking him down, pounded him in a terrible manner. Then all the men went home. Hubbard was very sore from the beating and went to bed. On Monday he became very ill and Tuesday doubts as to his recovery were reported. He grew worse to-day and died this evening at 6 o'clock, after making an ante-mortem statement in which he stated that the beating was done by McGinnis, the other men being mere onlookers.

Warrants for the men were sworn out early in the day and they were captured and landed in jail this evening.

Hubbard was an inoffensive colored man, single and about 50 years of age. He was a worthless character, however, and eked out a precarious existence doing odd jobs. He spent most of his time about the barrooms of the city and was known as a beat.

McGinnis, the murderer, is a young railroad laborer about 25 years old, and came here from Amboy. He has a reputation as a very tough citizen, who would not scruple at striking a man at the slightest excuse.

McGinnis has a very fair defense, as Hubbard, through his dissipation, was a physical wreck and had not long to live. In fact, two doctors have already volunteered the statement that Hubbard would certainly have died in a very short time without the aid of Saturday night's beating.

Cool Resort.

Hall & Rowe's hotel restaurant is supplied with everything in the line of confectionery and ice cream—cream that has no superior, if any equal in the city.

Too Busy to Talk "Ads."

J. E. Porter was too busy to write locals yesterday. A FREE TRADER reporter found him at the Farmers' Supply Store, 118 Main street, surrounded by customers eager to make a purchase. Mowers and binders are selling like hot cakes, and farmers are in to see Mr. Porter nearly every day examining the machines, etc.

The great cut on prices is proving a boon to Mr. Porter's trade on these machines. He sold three mowers and three binders yesterday.

A Cook Book Free.

Turn Verein.

The turn class of the Ottawa Turn Verein returned from Chicago at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday, after a glorious career in the big turnfest at Chicago. A large delegation of Turners, headed by Heinrich's band, escorted them to Turn Hall, where a hearty reception was given them.

Will Hemmerle won the 220-yard dash in 27.1 seconds. He also got first prize on the hop, skip and jump, making 40 feet, 4 inches.

Philip Black, Wm. Hemmerle, Chas. Diest and Henry Bestman got prizes for separate turning, scoring in the order named. The turn class took a prize, work in a body, ranking twenty-second in the list.

After the Fourth.

To-day and each day next week previous to our semi-annual inventory we will cut the prices on all summer goods so low as to move them out quick. If there is anything you want in dry goods, come. We will take all the tariff off.

Death of Mrs. Hall.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hall died at 2 a. m. Wednesday at the advanced age of 84 years. She was born in Arlington, Vt., and came to Ottawa in 1839. She had been ill but a few hours and death resulted from paralysis aggravated by the heat of last Friday and Saturday.

A JULY WEDDING.

The Murphy-Richardson Nuptials at St. Columba's Tuesday.

Miss Mary Gertrude Murphy and Mr. Samuel R. Richardson were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at St. Columba's church Tuesday morning by the pastor, Dean Keating. The bridal party entered the church at 8 o'clock and the ceremony was solemnized by a high mass attended by relatives and a large number of friends. The couple were assisted by Miss Mary Corrigan as bridesmaid and Michael Murphy, a brother of the bride, was the groom's best man. Both reside in Chicago.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents on Nebraska street, where a reception was held immediately after the ceremony had been performed. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson left on an afternoon train to spend a two weeks' honeymoon in Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Minneapolis and other cities of the north-west. They will reside in Ottawa. The bride is the youngest daughter of John F. Murphy, and is a popular young lady, and the groom is none other than Sam Richardson, bookkeeper for E. De la Chappelle. Among the many presents was an elegant piano given with compliments of the brothers of the bride.

Among those present from abroad were Mrs. Michael McMahon, Miss Mary Corrigan, John, Michael and Timothy Murphy, Chicago.

Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic is the "only perfect blood medicine" the public has ever known. It is a modern good-value-for-your-money-remedy more and better medicine for fifty cents than you get for a dollar in any sarsaparilla or alterative remedy. Clover Tonic comes as near perfection as human effort can produce. It cures 75 per cent of cases given up by physicians.

A correspondent of the Aurora Bear says that on Thursday a young man respectfully attired and apparently a granger, while riding into the village of Lisbon, the horse on which he rode dropped dead, overcome by the intense heat, and what is more remarkable the rider leaving his dead equine only proceeded a few paces when he dropped dead also.

Be prudent and do not spend a dollar for a bottle of sarsaparilla or any kidney or liver remedy when Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic, costing 50 cents, is far superior, and the bottle holds nearly a pint. It cures dyspepsia, constipation, loss of appetite, headache, torpid liver, bowel complaint, rheumatism, erysipelas, eruptions and all diseases arising from disordered blood, stomach, liver or kidneys. It is pure and harmless.
